

Updated January, 2021

Ohio Arts Professionals Network (OAPN)

JOIN a Group of Arts Professionals dedicated to the performing arts!

What OAPN is:

OAPN is a member based organization whose mission is to support and grow the touring Arts & Culture industry in Ohio.

What OAPN does:

- develops and shares information on the selection, promotion, and presentation of the arts;
- facilitates bringing presenters and artists together in the best interests of the performing arts;
- provides opportunities for professional development;
- provides services to the membership, including organizing meetings and workshops, maintaining an annual membership directory, offering network and communicating service opportunities, and other services.

How OAPN Achieves this:

With an active Board of Directors numbering 13-17, members who meet once annually and collaborate regularly via conference calls.

Board Member Job Description:

- Be available to participate in monthly conference calls
- Attend one annual meeting
- Serve on one Committee of the Board